Dear Valued Stakeholder

On behalf of Transnet National Ports Authority (TNPA), it gives me great pleasure to inform you of several senior appointments at TNPA that will assist us to sharpen our focus on the delivery of our strategic objectives and improve operational efficiencies.

TNPA has bid farewell to the Port Managers of Cape Town (Sipho Nzuzo) and Saldanha (Willem Roux), both of whom served our organisation admirably for a number of years but have elected to pursue interests outside of TNPA. We are indeed grateful to them for their contribution to the organisation.

The following appointments have subsequently been made by TNPA:

- Captain Vernal Jones is appointed as Port Manager – Saldanha, previously the Harbour Master in Cape Town
- Ms. Mpumi Dweba is appointed as Port Manager – Cape Town, previously the Port Manager for Ngqura
- Ms. Tandi Lebakeng is appointed as Port Manager – Ngqura, previously the Port Manager for Mossel Bay.

While these changes temporarily leave the ports of East London and Mossel Bay with vacant Port Manager positions, the roles will be fulfilled in an acting capacity by Port Engineer, Alvin Singama, in East London and Senior Operations Manager, Shadrack Tshikalange, in Mossel Bay.

Additional executive leadership appointments include:

- Ms. Jacqueline Brown is appointed as Executive Manager: Capacity Building and Enablement, previously the Port Manager for East London.
- Mr Ricky Bhikraj, previously the Executive Manager: Capacity Building and Enablement, is appointed Executive Manager: Research and Development and will continue to manage TNPA's Operation Phakisa programme
- Ms Debbie Cilliers, appointed as Executive Manager: Office of the Chief Executive
- Ms Ayanda Mantshongo, previously Corporate Affairs Manager at the Port of Durban, appointed as Executive Manager: Corporate Affairs

We would like to assure you of our continued commitment towards executing our strategies and ensuring business continuity through these appointments. Our new leadership will be in touch in the near future to schedule various engagements with our valued stakeholders.

Yours Sincerely,

Richard Vallihu
Chief Executive
